Using the ERS Client API

The ERS Client API allows you to write your own JVM-based programs which can call into Ambience to render reports and generate datastores.

This API can be used to migrate data between older applications such as Elixir Report 4.0 and Ambience.

See http://docs.elixirtech.com/Ambience/4.0.0/Programming-Interfaces/html-multi/ch02.html for more information.